FLOOR DEBATE

March 27, 2002 LB 1309

had mentioned a figure, that it is costing us $1 million to run the program, and I just want to be sure that we're dealing with...with some facts in addition to that. I don't think that that's...that the facts really bear that out. The entire budget of the Motor Vehicles Legal Division is about $929,000, and there are six attorneys, and those duties of those attorneys do include being ALR hearing officers. However, among other things, they also deal with the DMV rules and regulations process, which is extensive; all administrative hearings dealing with the DMV pertaining to the 1.2 million dol...1.2 million licensed drivers. They deal with all hearings associated with the registered motor vehicle hearings; all administrative actions under the Motor Carrier Service Division, including the $65 million international fuel tax program; and the $67 million international registration plan. They compile the records used by the Pardons Board in the 15-year license revocation cases. They deal with us on legislation, and generally provide legal advice. So if that's where the $1 million is coming from,...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR BROMM: ...I don't think that is necessarily an accurate figure. Secondly, we need to know that if we...and I know Senator Chambers' intentions here, and so I won't belabor this, but the impact of summarily terminating the program would have some other ramifications. Of course as you would guess, loss of about $428,000 in federal highway safety funds, and that entire $428,000 last year was granted to local law enforcement, city and county, for the purchase of things like intoxilyzers, in-car cameras, drug recognition enforcement officers and other DUI-related activities, so that $428,000 would be missed. And also, to continue just for a moment on the finances, each year when the licenses are revoked under ALR, there's a reinstatement fee paid by each driver of $125. Of that fee, $75 goes to the General Fund...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Five minutes.

SENATOR BROMM: ...of the state of Nebraska. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Of that $125, $75 goes to our General Fund which, in round figures, would mean that's about $600,000 in the
